

ANNUAL DISCLOSURE 2021

General Overview

Peter's Pence (the Obolo) is the name given to the financial support offered by the faithful to the Holy Father as a sign of their shared concern with the Successor of Peter in addressing the necessities of the Universal Church and to help those most in need.

In 2021 the Obolo's income amounted to € 46.9 million, while the expenses sustained totaled € 65.3 million, as shown below in Table 1.

Contributions granted by the Obolo

All the collections received by Peter's Pence aim at supporting two main areas of the Pope's Universal Mission: funding the activities of service carried out by the Roman Curia (e.g. formation of the clergy, communication, promotion of human development, education, justice, etc.), and contributing to numerous charitable works that directly assist those most in need.

Overall, as previously pointed out, donations and contributions granted during 2021 by the Peter's Pence Fund added up to € 65.3 million, € 46.9 million of which have been funded thanks to the offerings received in 2021, whereas the remainder, totaling € 18.4 million, have been funded by its patrimony. These initiatives can be further broken-down as follows:

- € 55.5 million to support the activities promoted by the Holy See in carrying out the Holy Father's Apostolic Mission;
- € 9.8 million to implement projects of direct assistance to those most in need.

€(000.000)	2021

Direct assistance to those most in need (€ 9.8 million)

The Pope, the Pastor of the Universal Church, is concerned with the material assistance to poor dioceses, religious institutes and faithful with serious difficulties (the poor, children, the elderly, the marginalized, as well as situations involving victims of natural disasters, war victims, Bishops or Dioceses in need, Catholic education, aid to refugees and migrants, etc.).

Throughout 2021, the Holy See, in carrying out its Apostolic Mission, has donated more than € 35 million. The Obolo itself has funded 157 different projects in 2021 across 67 different countries, for an amount of € 9.8 million (included in the € 35 million previously mentioned), geographically distributed as follows:

€(000.000)	2021
Continents	Projects	%	€	%
Africa	63	40.1%	4.1	41.8%

Support to the Holy Father's Apostolic Mission (€ 55.5 million)

The offerings of the faithful are intended to support the activities of the Holy Father in favor of the entire Universal Church, which includes the needs for evangelization (spiritual, educational, justice, communication, political charity, diplomatic activity, etc.). These activities are carried out by the Holy See, and many of the services provided and destined for the universal Church are possible thanks to Peter's Pence. In fact, it guarantees the activities of the Dicasteries that assist the Pope every day in exercising his ministry.

For representation purposes, the different Dicasteries and entities of the Holy See are clustered in: i) Entities performing services & administration; ii) entities managing the patrimony; iii) entities that support the Holy Father's Apostolic Mission.

In 2021, the total expenses of the 70 Dicasteries and entities grouped as "Supporting Apostolic Mission" of the Holy Father amounted to € 237.7 million, € 55.5 million (23%) of which were funded by the Obolo. These entities are consolidated in the following groups:
